

Press Release, March 30, 2023

On Coronation Day, Saturday, May 6, the Westchester Mental Health Guild will host a Royal Tea fundraiser, set for 1 p.m. at Covenant Presbyterian Church, 6323 West 80th Street in Westchester.

Tickets will cost $40 and will include tea, scones, fruit salad, sandwiches and dessert. There will also be a hat contest and a raffle. Tickets are available at Event Brite.

The Guild raises money to fund Airport Marina Counseling Service, which provides low-cost quality mental health care in the community and trains therapists. The Guild's mission of raising funds to provide affordable mental health services continues to be critical. If you wish further information, or to donate to or volunteer with the Guild, please visit its website, www.westchestermhg.org.

####